The Mayor of Llandudno, Cllr F. Davies, opened the proceedings by welcoming members of the Council, Mr Terence Richard Davies, guests, and members of the public to the special meeting to witness the conferment of the Honorary Freedom of the Town.

The Mayor's address highlighted that the Honorary Freedom of the Town was made to persons who had served with distinction in the community over a significant period of years, and he outlined the historic origins of the office of Freeman. The Town Council, in pursuance of its statutory powers to enable the awarding of the title 'Freeman of the Town', considered that Mr Terence Richard Davies should receive the honour in recognition of exceptional voluntary service to the community of Llandudno and his role as an ambassador for the Town. An Appreciation of Mr Davies' voluntary work had been previously circulated to members and guests.

COUNCIL MEETING

Cllr Philip C. Evans, JP, proposed the conferment of the Freedom of the Town and it was seconded by Cllr Mrs Margaret Lyon. Both paid tribute to Mr Davies and his work in the community.

IT WAS UNANIMOUSLY RESOLVED that Llandudno Town Council confer the Honorary Freedom of the Town upon Mr Terence Richard Davies in recognition of exceptional voluntary service to the community of Llandudno.

Mr Terence R. Davies was invited to accept an illuminated Vellum from the Mayor of Llandudno. Mr Davies then addressed the Council and thanked members for the prestigious honour.

The Mayor then closed the proceedings.
